

Online Figure 1. The associations between ambient minimum temperature and gestational age after adjustment for maternal and perinatal factors, air pollutants, and meteorological exposure

Minimum temperature at conception using average data of the first four weeks of gestation

Minimum temperature at delivery using average data of the last four weeks of gestation